CELEBRATING WORLD MUSIC AND FOOD

The Rotary Club of Media, in partnership with the Media Arts Council is presenting a FREE Multicultural Music Festival: Celebrating a World of Diversity on Saturday, September 9, from noon to 6:00 p.m. at the Media Courthouse Quad. The rain date is Sunday, September 10.

The event, sponsored in part by Marcus Institute of Integrative Health of the Jefferson Health System, will feature five musical groups including: Rami-Seo World Music Ensemble, a Korean group who was recently asked to perform at the White House in honor of the state dinner that President Biden had for South Korean President Yoon Suk Yeol; A Moroccan band called Innov Gnawa; Dende and Band, an Afro-Brazilian band; Axel Tosca, a Cuban group; and Wood Flower, an Americana band.

There will also be a variety of food trucks and tables, with Margaret Kuo's Kitchen headlining them. Other food offerings include Tattoo barbeque and Dos Gringos from Media; Kona Ice, and Rivalry, which features American comfort food.
